

Marsh Madness

Ponca State Park

March 19, 2016

7:00 am Sunrise Bird Tour— Get up before the birds! Join an expert guide from the Lo-ess Hills Audubon Society to watch waterfowl wake-up and continue their migration. Twenty-two different species of waterfowl have been viewed from our blinds. Make sure to bundle up for this program and feel free to bring your binoculars, spotting scopes, and cameras. Space is limited. Please pre-register by calling (402)755-2284. Meet inside of the Resource and Education Center. Free.

7:00 pm– Sunset Bird Tour— Watch the birds return to the safety of the marsh at dusk. A guide from the Loess Hill Audubon Society will take accompany you to our bird blinds. Binoculars, spotting scopes, and bird books will be available on the tour. Space is limited. Please pre-register by calling (402)755-2284. Meet in front of the Resource and Education Center. Free.

During Marsh Madness, there will be a 20% discount on all bird merchandise and 30% discount on mini-lodges.

Visit our Facebook Page, Nebraska Northeast Parks, to view our upcoming events at Ponca State Park. All programs subject to change due to staffing/weather. For questions please call at \(402\)-755-2284.

