

Birds at the Fort

Nebraska Game and Parks Commission's

Fort Hartsuff State Historical Park

You are invited to a morning with the birds. At this FREE event you will receive hands-on instruction on how to ID common birds of the area and how to choose and use binoculars. Then, Hike around the fort using your new birding skills with the aid of practiced birder Amy Hughes. Back at the barracks everyone will make a recycled bottle bird feeder to attract birds to your own back yard. The morning will wrap-up with a LIVE Raptors of Nebraska presentation from Nebraska's very own Raptor Recovery. Don't miss this family friendly event inspired to celebrate International Migratory Bird Month.

When: Saturday June 4th, 2016

Where: Fort Hartsuff SHP
82034 Fort Ave, Burwell Ne

Who: Friends and Families of all Ages.

Cost: FREE!! Park entry permit will be required.

To reserve your space call 308-346-4715 by May 28th.

Schedule of Events:

9:00 am : Welcome: Enlisted Men's Barracks Dining Hall

9:05 am: Beginning Birding with Amy Hughes

10:00 am: Recycled Bottle Bird Feeders

11:00 am: Raptor Recovery Kearney

12:00 pm: Adjourn

We would like to thank...

Friends of Fort Hartsuff

