

Two Rivers

State Recreation Area

27702 F st. Waterloo, NE 68069

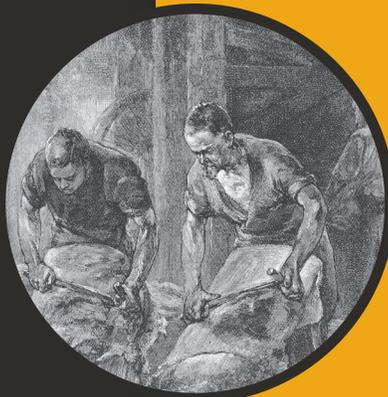

Special Events

Living History with Darrell Draper on Saturday, July 16th, 1900-2000:

Darrell Draper will make history come to life as he reenacts the life of Teddy Roosevelt. Draper uses period costumes and props to make audiences feel as though they have traveled back in time. His presentations are interactive, and make history a lot of fun!

We will meet at the pavilion located behind the concession stands for Draper's presentation. People are encouraged to bring lawn chairs or blankets to sit on.

Tandy Leather on Saturday, July 23rd, 1830-1930:

Tandy Leather teaches audiences of all ages about the history of the use of leather. At the end of the presentation, kids make a cow hide book mark that they can take home!

We will meet at the pavilion behind the concession stands for this presentation. People are encouraged to bring lawn chairs and blankets to sit on.

Raptor Recovery on Saturday, August 6th, 2 - 4 pm

Raptor Recovery is an organization that rescues injured raptors, and helps heal them to the point of being able to return to the wild. During their presentation, Raptor Recovery will show a few LIVE birds of prey! Also, stick around at the end for owl pellet dissection!

We will meet at the pavilion located behind the concession stands for Draper's presentation. People are encouraged to bring lawn chairs or blankets to sit on.